

Miss Sandhira Singh has been a South African Government representative for the Finance Minister office and the South African president's executive advisory board since 2003.

Skills and experience:

Miss Singh has extensive experience in coordinating and deploying of I.T solution systems (SARS-Sarsefiling), Energy Management for Government institutes and global markets across the board. Her experience in strategic project development & business development in many of the African and global countries has afforded her the ability to understand the South African market requirements for Energy Consumption, Mining & IT Projects. Miss Singh has held a number of senior positions at SARS-e-filing and the South African President's Office, including Head of I.T Strategy and Executive Advisor to Government delegation for all I.T development projects for a period of 16 years.

Miss Singh has been part of the South African Government project team to attend Silicon Valley (2014) in United States Of America to review solutions that would enhance the South African IT Ministry systems for paperless solutions, her site visit incorporated:

- Facebook Campus
- Apple Mac Campus
- LinkedIn Campus
- Google Campus

- Skype Campus

Prior to joining Oracle SA, she has been working closely with EMC/VMware Cloud technologies specifically positioning cloud technology into the SA market/SADC Regions and public sector.

Education: MBA- Henley (To be concluded by 2021)

- IT- Business development Adobe UK
- Microsoft CRM Technologies
- SAP Hanna
- Institutes: IODSA (she belongs to the Institute of Directors SA)

Areas of expertise:

- Strategic Planning
- Project Management
- Marketing Strategies
- Public Relations
- Policy Development
- Turnaround/Expansion Strategies
- Proactive Management
- Business Development